BEDFORD MAN INDICTED FOR THE RECEIPT OF A STOLEN CHECK

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE – United States Attorney Tom Colantuono reports that Mohammad Reza Enayat, age 33, of Bedford, New Hampshire, was arraigned by United States District Court Magistrate Judge James Muirhead following his indictment by a grand jury sitting in the District of New Hampshire for the receipt of stolen securities.

The indictment charges Enayat with receiving a stolen $113,800.00 check from QAD, Inc., Carpenteria, California, which was made payable to Innuendo, LLC, San Francisco, California, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2315.

If convicted, Enayat faces up to a ten year term of imprisonment and a fine of $250,000. The case was investigated by the Bedford Resident Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Terry L. Ollila.

An indictment is only an allegation and not proof of criminal conduct. As in all criminal cases, the defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
